

COMPETITION ANNOUNCEMENTBKV PRIZE 2023 FOR YOUNG APPLIED ARTS*Bavarian Crafts Council (Bayerischer Kunstgewerbeverein e.V.)

Founded in 1851, the Bavarian Crafts Council (Bayerischer Kunstgewerbeverein or BKV) looks back on 160 years of history. Today, it is a professional association for the promotion of contemporary crafts with around 450 members. Located in the centre of Munich, BKV maintains a forum for ARTS + CRAFTS, which consists of the "Gallery for Applied Arts" (Galerie für Angewandte Kunst) and a spacious shop with a wide range of contemporary works of art. The Bavarian Crafts Council also participates in a number of trade fairs.

BKV Prize 2023 for Young Applied Arts

One of the main objectives of the BKV is to promote the younger generation of artists, i.e. to financially support the professional and artistic development of young artisans through publications and by means of expert assistance. The BKV Prize was therefore created in 2006 and is awarded once a year.

Competition

The competition is aimed specifically at young artisans who have completed their professional training and are beginning their careers. The competition is international and covers all areas of applied arts.

Criteria

The prize is awarded to works that show unique artistic creation based on fine craftsmanship.

Awards

- First Prize: € 3.000,- + Catalogue (German/English)
- 2nd Prize: € 2.000,- + Catalogue (German/English)
- 3rd Prize: € 1.000,- + Catalogue (German/English)
- The three prize winners receive a joint catalogue (German/English)
- Additionally, all prize winners will be honored with a complimentary three year membership in the BKV.
- All works of the finalists and prize winners will be exhibited during the award ceremony at the Internationale Handwerksmesse, IHM Munich, Special Exhibition "Handwerk & Design" and afterwards in the Gallery for Applied Arts (Galerie für Angewandte Kunst).

Participation

- Artisans who have not yet reached the age of 35 as of the cut-off date (January 1, 2023) may participate.
- Entrants must have completed their training and be professionally engaged in fine craftsmanship.
- The entry must consist of at least 3 (maximum 5) pieces of work. These must not be older than 2 years as of the cut-off date of January 1, 2023. Works included in the entry must not have been awarded a prize or exhibited in any other competition.

Dates

- Entry deadline: July 29, 2022
- Award ceremony: March 11, 2023
The award ceremony will be held at the Internationale Handwerksmesse in Munich.

Competition procedure

Works are selected in two stages:

1st stage: Photo jury

The following must be submitted by July 29, 2022:

- Completed application form
See information on conditions of entry on page 4 or at www.bayerischer-kunstgewerbeverein.de
- Competition entry (images of 3 to max. 5 different pieces of work)
